place as the result of the activities of a "band of swindlers". These individuals had informed the families of prisoners that upon payment the situation of their relatives would be eased. The State Security was informed of these contacts and believing that they related to an organization of the National Peasant Party, arrested a number of that Party. After an investigation had determined that the State Security had acted in error, those arrested were released with "excuses". No information is available relative to the fate of the so-called "swindlers".
